CREATIVE HOMEMAKING FOR LITTLE HOMEMAKERS WORKSHOP

Titus 2:3-5

The beauty and value of homemaking has become diminished in our culture. The art of homemaking is considered old fashion by many, when in fact it plays a significant role in the Christian community. The purpose of this fun and engaging workshop is to teach the basic principles and values of homemaking in a way that inspires children to serve, be creative and extend the culture of home into their community. Each session will include a fun activity, take home resources and a picnic to celebrate and display all they learned during the day.
